Re: United States of America v. Jalen Cormarrius Terry
Case No. 4:18CR00012

Dear Ron:

We continue to represent Jalen Terry by appointment.

I write to follow-up the voicemail we left you yesterday concerning the identity of a government informant and material witness.

At Mr. Terry's detention hearing on June 25, the defense examined the government's case agent. The agent testified that the government's prosecution of Mr. Terry is based substantially upon information received from an unidentified informant who purportedly witnessed violent acts in aid of racketeering alleged in several counts of the indictment. Because the informant allegedly participated in some or all the racketeering and firearms offenses described in the indictment or is a material witness with respect to those charged offenses, Mr. Terry is entitled to know his or her identity and whereabouts.

If we do not hear from you in response to this letter by July 27, we will assume our request for disclosure is denied.

Very truly yours,

Paul G. Beers
